What is Scouts BSA?

Scouts BSA is a year-round program for youth 11-17 years old that provides fun, adventure, learning, challenge, and responsibility to help them become the best version of themselves.

For the first time in its 100+ year history, the iconic program of the Boy Scouts of America is open to young women as well as young men, all of whom will have the chance to earn Scouting's highest rank, Eagle Scout.

In Scouts BSA, young men and women go places, test themselves, and have one-of-a-kind adventures that can't be found anywhere else.

Activities

In Scouts BSA, there's something for everyone. With 137 different merit badges and countless other indoor and outdoor activities, there's no limit to the things you can learn or the adventures you can take.

Your Council Information

www.yourcouncil.org - This is our council website which has information on upcoming events and training along with program resources for Scouts, parents and leaders.

www.Scouting.org - This is our national website that has a variety of information and resources for families new to the Scouting program and for those who have been involved for years.

www.BeAScout.org - This is a new website designed to help families find a Scouting unit near them along with some information about the unit's program.

As Scouts plan activities and progress toward goals, they experience personal growth. Youth men and women grow by participating in community service projects and by doing a Good turn daily.

The Scout slogan is Do a Good Turn Daily. That means doing something to help others each day without expecting anything in return. It implies that Scouts do their part in caring for the community and the environment.

Scouts BSA is an introduction to the great outdoors for boys and girls ages 11 through 17 and, most important, a lesson about their place in it.

Personal Growth

Service

Scouting builds leaders. Former Scouts serve on the boards of global corporations, walk the halls of the White House, and have been known to go hiking on the moon occasionally. Life lessons learned in Scouting will help all of its members make good decisions throughout life.
